

Old World Custom Homes, LLC

Old World Custom Homes, LLC was founded by two European craftsmen, Petr Kratky and Robert Hlusek, who inspire to create distinctive quality custom homes. Old World Custom Homes, LLC has over 20 years combined experience of homebuilding in the South Carolina Lowcountry. We offer with great pride Old World Style craftsmanship and value our reputation as high quality homebuilders. We are able to build a variety of homes designed with our customers' lifestyles in mind that will not only enhance their living environment but will maximize their investment. Our goal is to build for our customers with professional integrity and to understand their expectations to make the building experience positive.